Philippa

Came to New Zealand in 2013 after working as a freelance orchestral and chamber musician in England. She studied violin performance at the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire with Nathaniel Vallois, and came to pick up the viola after gaining an interest in Early Music and historically informed performance. In her final year of study she was gifted the title of Student Fellow of the Conservatoire, and an offer to continue to study the viola with violist, Robin Ireland of the Former Lindsay Quartet. Philippa now lives and works in Christchurch and the greater Canterbury area as a teacher and performer. She is a violist with the Christchurch Symphony Orchestra, and second violin section leader with CBS music.
